On November 29, 2022, Your Honor ordered that the defendant be continued on the same bond with the following additional conditions:

- Defendant shall cooperate with the probation office for the presentence investigation.
- Defendant shall reappear on March 7, 2023 at 9:00 a.m. for sentencing.

On March 7, 2023, the defendant appeared for sentencing before Your Honor and received a sentence of 12 months and 1-day incarceration. The Court ordered that:

- The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence no sooner than June 30, 2023, at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons as notified by the United States Marshal. Until he self-surrenders, the defendant shall remain under the Order Setting Conditions of Release entered on August 31, 2022, with the added condition that when notified as to where to report, the defendant self-surrender to the facility as directed.

Based on information received regarding a letter being submitted to the Court by the defendant's wife alleging alcohol abuse and domestic violence, the Probation Office began investigating matters related to this. Prior to the notification, the Probation Offices for the Eastern District of Virginia and the District of Maryland held a three-way meeting with the defendant on May 11, 2023, to discuss similar allegations made by the defendant's wife. The defendant denied any such allegations. As a follow up, the Probation Office conducted an automated record check with the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) to determine if there was a restraining order placed on the defendant and none was found. However, the record check did reveal that on May 10, 2023, a warrant was issued for the defendant pursuant to a misdemeanor charge of First-Degree Assault, in Prince George's County, Maryland. At this time, the Probation Office is still investigating the circumstances and nature of the charge.
